3. 2nd Dec 2016 7.30pm

PIVA (Early music consort)

An Elizabethan Christmas: Piva helps kick start Christmas with a lively show of music of the season, backed up with seasonal stories and fables. Piva washes away the Victorian influence and plays carols and tunes in a style which would have been familiar to someone from the 16th century. The perfect Christmas show.

Bagpipes, hurdy gurdies, recorders, viol, curtals, rauschpfeifen, crumhorns, shawms, violin - members of Piva are multi-instrumentalists bringing together the sounds and atmosphere of Renaissance Europe.

"A remarkable Renaissance music group called PIVA - if you have the chance to hear them, jump at it." Voluntary Arts Ireland

"Piva perform with style and panache." fRoots Magazine
